Maritime SheEO bags 2022 Crew Welfare Diversity & Inclusion Award

SAFETY4SEA announced the winners of the inaugural 2022 Crew Welfare Virtual Awards on Tuesday, June 21st, recognizing the industry's tanker operators, dry bulk operators, organizations, service providers, managers, and individuals that demonstrated leadership and embraced outstanding practices toward crew welfare.

launched Maritime SheEO in August 2019 as part of her commitment to diversity. Maritime SheEO works with organizations to create a level playing field for women and an environment conducive for women to rise to leadership positions. Launched in March 2022, the Maritime SheEO Leadership Accelerator Programme aims to enable women SheEO aims to build a robust list of resources for the industry to use related to diversity. Its goal is to increase the participation of women and eliminate all forms of biases in the maritime industry.

Accepting the award, Mrs. Sanjam Sahi Gupta, Founder, Maritime SheEO, said: "Maritime SheEO started with a dream to drive equality within the maritime industry. It started as a small initiative in 2019, and it has grown with the hard work and efforts of our team. Today, the only thing that separates women from reaching leadership positions is opportunity. We all need to champion diversity, and we promise we will continue to do so in the coming years. Diversity is what makes our industry special".

Maritime SheEO received the 2022 Crew Welfare Diversity & Inclusion Award for providing a platform that promotes the next generation of female maritime leaders. Recently, Maritime SheEO in collaboration with IMO & WISTA launched the Maritime SheEO Leadership Accelerator Programme to provide management knowledge and skills to empower women in the maritime industry. Other short-listed nominees for this category were: ECSA and ETF, International Chamber of Shipping (ICS), Maritime UK, and The Seafarers' Charity.

Passionate about driving change, Ms. Sanjam Sahi Gupta, Director Sitara Shipping,

Ms. Sanjam Sahi Gupta, Director Sitara Shipping
